GREGG POPOVICH

HEAD COACH / PRESIDENT OF SPURS BASKETBALL

Gregg Popovich is in his 29th season as the Spurs head coach. He currently stands as the longest tenured active coach in all four U.S. major sports leagues. Popovich has led the Silver and Black to five NBA Championships (1999, 2003, 2005, 2007 and 2014) and is just one of five coaches with five-or-more NBA Championships (along with Phil Jackson, Red Auerbach, John Kundla and Pat Riley). A three-time NBA Coach of the Year (2003, 2012 and 2014), Popovich was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame on August 12, 2023.

On March 11, 2022, Popovich became the NBA's all-time leader in regular season wins with his 1,336th career victory. He is also the NBA's all-time combined wins (regular season and playoff) with 1,558 wins. Popovich ranks first all-time among NBA coaches for the most consecutive winning regular seasons with 23. He's led San Antonio to the NBA's best regular season record five times (1998-99, 2000-01, 2002-03, 2011-12 and 2013-14). He's also been named Western Conference All-Star coach four times and NBA Coach of the Month 17 times, the most in league history.

Popovich finished the 2023-24 season with an all-time regular season record of 1,388-821. His career winning percentage of .628 ranks seventh in NBA history (behind Jackson (.704) Billy Cunningham (.698) K.C. Jones (.674), Red Auerbach (.661), Steve Kerr (.654) and Pat Riley (.636) min. 500 games). On Feb. 4, 2017, Popovich collected his 1,128th win as Spurs head coach to surpass Jerry Sloan for most wins with a single franchise in NBA history. His 170 playoff wins rank third in NBA history (behind Jackson and Riley).

Internationally, Popovich served as head coach of the USA Basketball Senior Men's National Team from 2017-20 guiding Team USA to a gold medal at the 2020 Tokyo Olympics. He has also served assistant coach for five USA Basketball national teams winning a one gold medal and one bronze medal.

Born in East Chicago, Ind., Popovich graduated from the United States Air Force Academy with a degree in Soviet studies in 1970. While there he played basketball for four seasons. As a senior he was named the team's captain and was their leading scorer averaging 14.3 points. In 2007, he was honored by the Air Force Academy with its Distinguished Graduate Award.

Following his graduation in 1970 Popovich served his five-year military commitment in the U.S. Air Force. During that time he toured Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union as a member of the U.S. Armed Forces Team. In 1972, he was selected captain of the Armed Forces Team, which won the Amateur Athletic Union (AAU) championship. He was among 66 players invited by the U.S. Olympic Basketball Games Committee to try out for the 1972 U.S. Olympic Basketball Team.

Popovich returned in 1973 to the Air Force Academy and was head coach of the USAFA Prep School for three seasons (1973-76). He spent three seasons (1976-79) as an assistant at the U.S. Air Force Academy and he obtained a master's degree in physical education and sports sciences from the University of Denver.

In 1979 Popovich was named the head coach at Pomona-Pitzer in Claremont, Calif. where he would spend the next eight seasons. During the 1985–86 season he led the team to its first conference championship in 68 years and to a berth in the NCAA Division III Tournament. While at Pomona Popovich was an active member of the school's academic community, working as an associate professor, chairing the college's Student Life committee, serving on the Women's Commission and even – for one year – living in a dorm with his family.

In July of 1988 Popovich made the move to the NBA joining the Spurs as an assistant coach on Larry Brown's staff. He spent the next four seasons in San Antonio with a Spurs team that won a pair of Midwest Division titles. In the summer of 1992 he was named an assistant coach on Don Nelson's staff with Golden State.

After two seasons with Golden State, Popovich returned to the Spurs after being named general manager and vice president of basketball operations on May 31, 1994. Midway through the 1996-97 season he took over as head coach.

Popovich is a very active member of the San Antonio community. In 1991 he teamed with Frank Martin to create the Spurs Youth Basketball League. Today the league plays at 75 locations in San Antonio and throughout South Texas. The league was honored with a Daily Point of Light Award by President George H.W. Bush in February of 1992. He is involved in several charities in the San Antonio area and beyond, including the San Antonio Food Bank, Haven for Hope, Roy Maas' Youth Alternatives, CHEST Foundation and the Innocence Project.

HEAD COACH

Carlos Llamosa was announced as the third head coach in SAFC history on December 16, 2024. Llamosa brings 14 years of professional coaching experience, most recently spending five seasons with the Portland Timbers. While in Portland, he helped guide the Timbers to MLS runner-up finishes in 2018 and 2021 and an MLS is Back tournament championship in 2020. Llamosa had held assistant coaching positions at numerous clubs, including Chivas USA (2010), New York Cosmos (2013-16), New England Revolution (2017). While with the Cosmos, Llamosa enjoyed an undefeated home record in 2013, helping lead the squad to a NASL Fall Season title and NASL Soccer Bowl Championship in the same season.

Prior to coaching, Llamosa enjoyed a successful playing career spanning over 18 years. At age 21, he emigrated to the United States and played semi-professionally while working to support himself until he was drafted to MLS side D.C. United in 1997. With United, he won the MLS cup in 1997 and 1999 before signing with Miami Fusion in 2001, where he earned his first MLS Best XI selection. He also spent time with New England Revolution (2002-05) and Chivas USA (2006-07). Shortly after becoming a United States citizen in 1998, Llamosa made his U.S. national team debut and went on to earn 29 caps. Llamosa officially retired from professional play in 2007.

As a values-based organization, we are deeply committed to creating spaces where everyone feels included and fostering a genuine sense of belonging. Our initiatives, such as heritage nights, internal staff affinity networks, and educational opportunities, are not just activations; they are core to our purpose. We believe that uniting people through sports and amplifying the voices of unrepresented communities are essential to our identity and mission. From our staff to our fans, embracing diverse cultures opens doors to greater access, fosters healing within communities, and provides a platform to uplift voices that have historically been de-centered.

The Spurs Culinary Residency program celebrated diversity and inclusion, while spotlighting local and emerging talent that is at the heart and soul of San Antonio's culinary landscape. SS&E COMMUNITY IMPACT

23-34 50/50 Raffle:

The Spurs Give 50/50 Raffle is the single largest fundraiser that provides critical funding for Spurs Give initiatives such as the Spurs Youth Basketball League, Play SA, Play ATX, and more. With 50% of that game's earnings going to one lucky participant, the remaining 50% goes back to Spurs Give where we continue our support in our local communities. This season, the 50/50 raffle raised a gross jackpot total of $392,428 across all 41 of our home games and additional Spurs events.

2024 Fiesta De Los Spurs Run:

In the spirit of Fiesta, the San Antonio Spurs hosted their third successful Fiesta De Los Spurs Run, where 951 runners from across San Antonio gathered for a 2.5 to 2.8-mile ' fun run' down the Flambeau parade route. Runners were bussed to the starting line at the Rainbow Crosswalk in San Antonio, where the race kicked off with the Spurs Hype Squad leading the way. Participants were greeted at the finish line by parade goers, the SSE family, Spurs fans, community partners, and more. Following the race, runners and fans gathered for the Spurs Post-Race Party, where they enjoyed food, games, prizes, goodie bags, and celebrated the rich history of Fiesta.

23-24 Committed to Uvalde:

In continued support of the Uvalde community, SSE hosted Uvalde's Tree-City Basketball team for a suite night. Thanks to the generosity of our donors, the team was transported from Uvalde to the Frost Bank Center to watch the Spurs take on the Pelicans from a private suite. The evening began with a pre-game meet-and- greet with Spurs' own Tre Jones. Following the meet-and-greet, Tree-City players were escorted to a suite, generously donated by Spurs Leadership where they enjoyed the game and an unforgettable experience.

OUR WORK IN AUSTIN:

23-24 Play ATX:

The Spurs joined forces in a multi-year collaboration with the City of San Antonio and Austin Parks & Recreation and their foundations to breathe new life into parks and community basketball courts scattered across every district of our community. Through this collaborative initiative, our goal is to create lasting legacies, promote physical well-being and build pride within each district, which would encourage community engagement throughout the year.

2024 Central Texas All-Star Game:

In honor of Spurs Week, the Austin Spurs hosted the 2024 Central Texas High School All-Star Game, celebrating the remarkable talent of high school student-athletes across Central Texas. 40 graduating student-athletes (both boys and girls) from high schools throughout the region were invited to participate in the game, which was attended by 400 friends, family members, and Austin Spurs fans. During the event, players were recognized for their outstanding achievements on the court and in the classroom throughout their high school careers.
